Words of Remembrance

The sun shined bright and warm on that Tuesday, and you so wanted to stay and play. You smiled, laughing as you climbed on board to the thing that you've always loved to do. Hunting, fishing, and X-box too, were things that always captured you. We didn't know that this would be the day God had planned for you to join Him in the promise land.

We won't ever understand why you had to leave, but we know that God always has a plan in the end. You've touched our lives in so many ways. You've created times of happiness, sadness, and utter madness some days, but your love for us was always there, shining through even the dimmest hours. Nothing will ever compare to the memories we all have of you.

We trust God's promise that one day we will join you for eternity and in God's presence we will dwell with you forever and always.

You are the ray of sunshine across my face. You have been my warm and loving embrace. Though your voice is gone, I've got your memory saved. Though your laughter is gone, I've got it on replay. You are my smile. You are my tears. Though it's farewell for now, I know you're really never too far away. 'Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.' -Isaiah 41:10
